

Florida Statute for American Flags

Florida statute (718.113) allows unit owners to display one portable, removable U.S. flag and, on specific holidays, portable, removable flags for the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard. The flags must be displayed respectfully and are not larger than (4.5) feet by (6) feet.

The Association confirmed and received legal advice from Todd Allen on October 22, 2025.
